

The Executive Business School Limited (EBS), Lagos

In collaboration with

Bradford University Law School (BULS), UK

The Executive Business School (EBS) on behalf of Bradford University Law School invites application for admission into its Bachelors of Law (LLB) degree programme.

The University

The University of Bradford, one of the leading Universities in the UK, received its Royal Charter in 1966, though its origin dates back to the 1860s. Bradford is a great place to live and study; it is one of the ten largest cities in Britain, located in West Yorkshire, North East of England, small enough to be friendly, compact enough to be easily manageable, yet large enough to have all the facilities of a thriving modern City.

The Programme

The LLB programme consists of three levels representing three years of a UK Bachelor degree. Lectures for the first two levels will be held in Nigeria with Lecturers drawn from leading Law Faculties in Nigeria and UK while lectures for the third level will be at the University in Bradford, UK. Successful completion of the second level guarantees an automatic and unconditional admission into the third level (Final Year) of the Bachelor of Law (LLB) degree programme at BULS provided you apply within two years of completing the level 2.
